TORONTO (April 6, 2010) -- TheMarkNews.com, Canada's daily source for news analysis, launches a new weekly radio show on seven radio stations across Canada.

The Mark Radio will air on:

94.9-FM CHRW in London, Ontario on Monday at 7 p.m. (ET)
CIUT-FM 89.5 in Toronto, Ontario on Monday at 9 a.m. (ET)
CKDU 88.1-FM in Halifax, Nova Scotia on Wednesday at 7 a.m. (EDT)
CJSF 90.1-FM in Vancouver, British Columbia on Tuesday at 12 p.m. (PDT)
93.3-FM CFMU in Hamilton, Ontario on Thursday at 9 a.m. (ET)
CFMH-FM 107.3 in Saint John, New Brunswick on Friday at 2:30 p.m., Saturday at noon (EDT)
CAPR Radio in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia

From the state of Canada's literary scene to the future of transit, The Mark Radio will provide insight and expert analysis into the week's news from a Canadian perspective. Each podcast features interviews with famous Canadians.

"We're excited to gain access to an audience of thoughtful, engaged listeners who are looking for analysis on what's happening in Canada," said Chris Mitchell, audio producer at The Mark.

About The Mark

The Mark is Canada's daily online forum for news commentary and debate. It is founded on the idea that thousands of credible Canadians, here and abroad, have important things to say but cannot reach a national audience. For these Canadians, The Mark is their platform. It publishes high-quality original written, audio and video content for distribution through the web, print, radio, television and live events. The Mark, which is based in Toronto, launched in May 2009. Visit The Mark:
