National President of the Canadian Auto Workers union joins roster of
The Mark, Canada's online forum for news commentary and debate.

Toronto, ON-- The Mark News, Canada's daily online forum for news, commentary and debate, is pleased to welcome Ken Lewenza.

Mr. Lewenza will be joining The Mark's roster of business contributors, which already includes outstanding Canadians such as Michael Geist and Jordan Banks. His debut article, "The Precarious Economy," discusses Canada's growing unemployment problem.

"We're very excited to have Mr. Lewenza join The Mark," says Jeff Anders, CEO of The Mark News. "As CAW national president, Mr. Lewenza brings an invaluable perspective to bear to any discussion of labour in this country."

The Mark recruits contributors using two criteria: professional credibility and a connection to Canada. The Mark does not select contributors based on how they vote, where they live, or what language they prefer, and certainly doesn't dictate what they write. The result is a community of thinkers and doers that reflects all points of view on politics, business, science and technology, and the arts. Though The Mark encourages contributors to express their bias, The Mark is not anchored to any one ideology itself, following the motto "You think, we curate."
